Mr. LEE CHI CHUNG.

Mr. Lee Chi Chung is the oldest son of the late Mr. Lee Yok Tung, one of the most prominent personages of Hongkong. He is a native of Toishan District, Kwangtung Province, born in 1882.

He was taught in a school in his native village till he was seventeen years old, and then he went to Canton and acquired practical knowledge in the Electrical Power Co., Ltd., which was initiated by his father.

He proceeded to Japan in the following year and learned the craft of military training.

At the end of the Ch'ing Dynasty when the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen started revolution, Mr. Lee, who is an enthusiastic nationalist joined into the party. In 1901, he became a member of the Kwangtung Independent Federal Association, Yokohama, which was organized by Dr. O. W. Wang. Two years later, when the late Dr. Sun Yat Sen established the Revolutionary Military Training School in Tokyo, Japan, Mr. Lee was one of the members of that institution.

He was under the instruction of Dr. Sun, and returned to Hongkong in 1905 to ally with those revolutionary members in Canton and Macao.

By that time, Mr. Lee established the Kwong Hon School in Kowloon with the main object to furnish the students with high education and military training. His object was favorably appreciated by the Chinese community and many schools such as the Tai Yok School, the Yok Ying School, the Chi Yung School, the Ho Kut Po School, the Mok Lai Chu School, the Lai Chi School, and the Ellis Kadoorie School, by which he was offered respectively the position of a teaching staff. Mr. Lee returned to Canton and became a student in the Public Medical College, when he was twenty four.

After the Chinese Republic was established, Mr. Lee returned to the Colony and set himself in the business field. He was Treasurer of the Bank of Canton, and later promoted to the position of assistant manager. He was connected with this bank for twenty-four years until it was re-organized in 1936. At present, he is general manager of the Shanghai Fire & Marine Insurance Co., Ltd. Besides this, he has been president and treasurer of the South China Athletic Association; director of the Shui Fung Cotton Co., Hankow; the On Lok Yuen Co., Ltd., Hongkong; and the Hong Lin Life Assurance Co., Ltd.

During the famous Sino-Japanese Conflict in 1932, Mr. Lee contributed a great amount of money to relieve the calamity.

Mr. Lee has many children and all of them have obtained a good education.
