SIR SHOU-SON CHOW, Kt. J.P.

One of the most distinguished personages in Hongkong is Sir Shou-son Chow. He is a native of the Po On District, Kwongtung Province, but he was born in Hongkong and is now seventy-seven years of age. Having attained a good knowledge in Chinese literature he was then selected as a free scholar by the Chinese Government to study in the Columbia University, N.Y., U.S.A., in 1874. He returned to China in 1881, and held an important post in the Chinese Customs in Korea. Three years later, he was transferred to be consul-general in an important city in that country. In 1903, he was appointed president of the Chinese Merchants Steamship Navigation Co., Tientsin, and in 1907, president of the Peking Mukden Railway. During the Russo Japanese War, he was presented by the Japanese Emperor with the Medal of Brilliancy, and since then, he was in the position of various Mandarins in Northern China and his excellent reputation was spread far and abroad.

After the Republic of China was founded, he was honoured by the late President Yuan Shih-kai with conferring of the Order of the Chia Ho (Excellent Crop) Third Class. The Second Class of the same Order was given him in 1918, while the Second Class Medal of Brilliancy was bestowed on him by president Hsu Shih-chiang in the following year.

Since 1917, he became Justice of the Peace of Hongkong and besides this, he has the chair in the Directorate of many important firms and Public Utility concerns such as the Bank of East Asia; the China Entertainment and Land Investment Co., The China Emporium., The Hongkong Telephone Co., The Hongkong Electric Co., The Hongkong Tramway, The International Assurance, A. S. Watson, The Hongkong China Realty and Trust Co., The Nanyang Brothers Tobacco Co., Ltd., and many others.

Sir Shou-son Chow was a member of the Sanitary Board since 1922 and in the same year, became member of the Legislative Council. The Honour of Knighthood was conferred upon him by His Late Majesty King George V in 1926. In the following year, he became member of the Hongkong Executive Council, and in 1933, he was conferred by the Hongkong University with the Degree of LL.D. Another Honour bestowed upon him by His late Majesty King George V is the Order of the Silver Jubilee in 1935.

Sir Shou-son has been noted to be publicly and privately connected with various branches of philanthropic activities and is the president of the Hongkong Society for the Protection of Children and Patron of the Chinese Mission to Lepers as well as being in the Committee of various charitable associations. He is a member of the District Watchmen Committee, Permanent Adviser of the Tung Wah Hospital, Public Dispensaries and the Po Leung Kuk. Though he advances in age, his spirit is vigorous and kind; for he takes as great delight in sports as in business. He is adviser to the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce and Hon. President of the South China Athletic Association and the Chinese Recreation Club.

Sir Shou-son was married in his youth and has many sons and plenty of grand and great-grand sons.
