Mr. HO WAH SANG.

Mr. Ho Wah Sang is one of the most prominent business men in Hongkong. He is a native of the Kwangtung Province and was born in 1872. He was not born in a family which could provide him with a thorough education and yet with his vigorous struggles and unwearying labors, he was able to gain a good position in this commercial sphere.

Thirty-seven years ago, he established the Sui Cheong Co., in Wing Lok Street. It was dealing with piece-goods and later it dealt in retailing of drugs and medical products. For many decades, under the able management of Mr. Ho, it becomes to-day one of the most outstanding business house in Hongkong.

The chief manufacturings are the famous different kinds of "Parrot" branch medicines, which are welcome not only in South China but also throughout the Malayan Peninsula and the Dutch East Indies. Branches were established in different important ports to represent its products.

Mr. Ho is not only a prominent business man, but also a social magnate. He has been the chairman of the Tung Wah Hospital; a member on the board of Committee of the Po Leung Kuk, and the Chinese Chamber of Commerce; Chairman of the Chin Wu Athletic Association and many others.

Mr. Ho has many children. His eldest son, Mr. Kung Chong, is a smart young man who has been chairman of the Tung Wah Hospital and director of the Po Leung Kuk.
